*Congregational Introit

“Who with God Most High Finds Shelter”
Who with God Most High finds shelter
In th’ Almighty’s shadow hides.
To the Lord I’ll say, “My Refuge!”
In my God my trust abides.
From the fowler’s snare He’ll save you,
From the deadly pestilence;
Cover you with outspread pinions,
Make His wings your confidence.

Our Father who art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

“He that Dwelleth in the Secret Place of the Most High”

J. MacDermid

Valerie Kraft Simonsen, soprano

He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High, shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.
Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night, nor the arrow that flieth by day;
Nor the pestilence that walketh in the darkness;
Nor the destruction that casteth at noonday.

Because thou hast made the Lord which is my refuge even the most High thy habitation;
There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.
For He shall give His angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways,
They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

Celebrating Children

A Word to Our Worshipers and Parents of Our Young Children

The presence of children is a gift to the Church and a reminder of our God’s covenant faithfulness.

We want to be a congregation that welcomes our children and gives a smile of encouragement to their parents.

Remember that the way we respond to children in church directly affects the way they respond to the Church, to God, and to one another. Let them know that they are at home in this house of worship.

So parents, relax! God put the wiggle in your children; don’t feel you have to suppress it in God’s house. All are welcome!

- Quietly explain the parts of the service and actions of the pastors, ushers, choir, etc.
- Sing the hymns, pray, and voice the responses. Children learn to worship by watching and following you.
- If you have to leave the service with your child, feel free to do so, but please come back. As Jesus said, “Let the children come to me.”
