

Sunday, February 10th 2019

Dr. Todd M. Smedley

“Blessing the World with Our Wealth”

5th Sermon in the Series “Blessed to Be a Blessing”

Sermon Passage: 2 Corinthians 9:6-15

Second Passage: Deuteronomy 15:7-11

Read the Passage

Discussion Questions

1. The Apostle Paul uses the analogy of a farmer sowing seed in 2 Corinthians 9:6. What’s his point about the Christian life?
2. Biblically speaking, what does it mean to be content?
3. Describe what you think a Christian ‘overflowing in many thanksgivings to God’ looks like.
4. How does the word ‘submission’ function in 9:13?
5. What’s one way that you’re going to apply this message to your everyday life?

Pray Together

- Pray together and for one another by asking for God’s help.