Discussion Questions

1. How familiar are you with the Book of Amos? What was your first thought when you heard that Dr. Smedley would be preaching from this book?
2. Why are historical markers, like earthquakes, significant to our appreciation of the Bible?
3. How does God’s judgement against Judah and Israel’s sin, included with the pagan nations, rebuke a “holier than thou” mindset that often besets Christian believers?
4. In what ways could studying the holiness of God help reorient an “us versus them” attitude?
5. If shepherds were among the lowest of social classes, what does God’s choosing Amos to be his mouthpiece tell us about God?
