Discussion Questions

1. Now the Apostle Paul uses a new analogy for the pastoral ministry. He compares himself to a “master builder” in verses 10-15. What point is Paul making here?
2. What other Scriptures might also speak with this architectural language about the church?
3. What is it, precisely, that will be revealed on the last day according to verses 13-15?
4. How do these verses properly set our priorities for life in the local church?
